

Adaptive wavelet methods for computing the Hilbert transform

Frank Martin

TU Bergakademie, Freiberg, Germany

Solving nonlinear Riemann-Hilbert problems requires computing the Hilbert transform on the unit circle. Since the fast Fourier transform restricts this computation to a uniform mesh, we introduce a new approach for computing the Hilbert transform on a non-uniform mesh using wavelets.