

Initial-boundary value problems and quaternionic analysis

Wolfgang Spröbig
TU Bergakademie, Freiberg, Germany

We will study initial-boundary value problems within the framework of quaternionic analysis. We will find representations and iterative procedures for solutions. Different quaternionic and Clifford analytic methods will be presented: a quaternionic semi-discretisation principle, factorization methods, representation by using operator exponentials.