

Vector-valued logarithmic residues and non-commutative Gelfand theory

Daniel lenz

Friedrich-Schiller-Universität, Jena, Germany

We consider Dirichlet forms on discrete sets. Such forms arise in the study of Markov processes on graphs. We present various characterizations of stochastic completeness of the graph in terms of existence of bounded solutions to certain Laplace type equations.

The talk is based on joint work with Matthias Keller.